

IN THE 2017 UK GENERAL ELECTION

Vote for your rights

On 8 June 2017, you will have the opportunity to participate in the General Election.

Why voting matters

The General Election result will affect profoundly the future of public services, including health and education provision, the future of children and young people, your pay, pensions and conditions of service, and the lives of ordinary working people and their families.

Registering to vote

If you have not done so already, please register to vote.

The deadline for registering to vote is midnight on Monday 22 May.

Registration is simple and only a few clicks away.

To register, please go to www.gov.uk/register-to-vote.

Postal votes

If you cannot make it to the polling station on election day, you can apply for a postal vote.

Details, including the form to use to register for postal voting with your local electoral registration office, can be found at www.aboutmyvote.co.uk/how-do-i-vote/voting-by-post.

The deadline for postal vote applications is 5pm on Tuesday 23 May.

Keep in touch with the latest issues

To keep in touch with the latest UK General Election issues, including details of the party manifestos once published, please visit, and bookmark/favourite, www.nasuwat.org.uk/Vote2017 and follow the NASUWT on Twitter and Facebook.

In the UK General Election

on 8 June 2017

Make your vote count

NASUWT
The Teachers' Union

Follow the NASUWT on:

or use the hashtag #voteforyourrights
www.nasuw.org.uk/Vote2017